

Pre-Ministry Questionnaire

Name: _____ Spouse's Name: _____ Date: _____

Below are areas that through various types of experience have been found to open the door to demonic oppression. For each of the items listed indicate (fill in the box) any involvement (participation, observation, lip-service, reading or any interest) by yourself 'S', parents 'P', grandparents 'GP', great-grandparents 'GG', Spouse 'SP', or other relatives, friends, school mates, teachers, or neighbors 'O' (identify who). NOTE: Definitions for terms in this questionnaire are at the end of the document.

False Religions:

These claim there are other gods besides Jesus and other ways of salvation not founded on the person of Jesus Christ. Have you ever denied that Jesus is the only way, Truth and life? Have you denied His divinity? His virgin birth? His bodily resurrection? His Second Coming? Have you denied the Trinity?

Pre-Ministry Requirements

Pray that the Holy Spirit will reveal to you any of the following. Write these down on the next page. You must be absolutely truthful before God and me. You cannot deceive God. This also helps us to discern the problem(s). Ask the Holy Spirit would bring these back to your memory if you feel you have forgotten. By filling out the questionnaire, you should be able to answer these questions. Use the definitions pages for help as well.

1. Be completely honest with God.
2. List all known unconfessed sin; be specific (i.e. pride, false god worship, hatred etc).
3. List separately all personal and ancestral occult involvement marked on the questionnaire (see definitions).
4. List all hurt and pain in your life that is not healed.

5. List separately resentment (unforgiveness) against anyone, living or dead and rebellion of any form.
6. List ancestral hurts and pains of your family system if known.
7. List personal sexual history and be specific. List each involvement outside of marriage vows. Sexual activity outside of marriage causes soul ties. To break these ties, list names, places, or faces; declare them as sin and the contracts broken; exchange the ties.
8. List ancestral sexual history if known.
9. List suicides in family system.
10. List abortions, miscarriages, or use of an IUD—self or family.

Definitions of Items in Questionnaire

8-Ball—A “toy” used to divine answers to questions which need only a “yes” or “no” answer.

Abortion—An induced expulsion of a fetus that results in death.

Abuse—Mistreatment of a human being or animal. May be directed at children or adults. Physical, mental, verbal, sexual or even spiritual abuse.

Acupuncture and Accupressure—occult theory of positive/negative forces (yin-yang) or energies to bring body, mind and spirit into "alignment," or the four meridian lines of the body.

Adultery—Sexual intercourse with someone other than one's spouse, or (for a single person) with a married partner.

Albert Camus—Existential novelist who also adopted nihilistic (see page 16 for a definition) attitudes which are obviously seen in his novels.

Alcohol—The liquid that is the intoxicating element in fermented and distilled liquor. In various forms from beer to hard liquor. Physically and psychologically addictive.

American Indian Rites—Any rituals, chants, dances, etc. performed by American Indians based on their animistic religions.

Amphetamines—A compound or one of its derivatives used especially as a stimulant of the nervous system. "Speed."

Amulet, Charm, Fetish, Good-luck Symbol, Talisman—A magically charged object frequently inscribed with magic formulas or Biblical scriptures, having protective powers (demonic) against sickness, other ills and calamities.

Anorexia—Severe eating disorder wherein the person refrains from or severely limits intake of food. Characterized by rapid weight loss, disruption of menstrual cycle, psychological distortions of physical self-image. Often due to sexual molestation.

Apport Magic—The transference of objects through closed rooms or sealed containers by means of the penetration of matter. Supernatural appearances and disappearances of material images in connection with the activities of a Spiritistic Medium.

Astral or Soul Travel—The practice of sending your soul on an out-of-body journey to distant places to discover hidden things. This is a common practice among more advanced New Age and Eastern religion practitioners and Spiritistic Mediums.

Astrology—An ancient art or pseudoscience "which claims to forecast events on earth, human character and man's fate by observation of the fixed stars and of the sun, moon and planets."

Atheism—The rejection of belief in God.

Automatic Writing—Writing letters, words or sentences either in a waking state or in a trance, which are considered to be messages from the spirit world. Practices of Hinduism, Buddhism, and others.

Baha'i—Fragmented from Islam. Belief that Moses, Jesus and Mohammad (founder of Baha'i) were equal prophets. Denies the Trinity. Jesus considered only one of nine manifestations of the divine being, not our atonement for sins. Salvation by works only.

Barbiturate—A drug used as a sedative or to induce sleep.

Bestiality—Sexual contact with animals.

Biofeedback—A technique of seeking to control certain emotional states, such as anxiety or depression, by training oneself, with the aid of electronic devices, to modify involuntary functions, such as heartbeat.

Biorhythms—Psychological/scientific study of the cycle of one's physical, emotional and intellectual levels; often used to make decisions about one's daily activities.

The Way—Centered in New Knoxville, OH. Emphasis on "Power for Abundant Living" teaching. Has differing view of textual origins of the New Testament and asserts that the concept of the Trinity is pagan in origin and therefore not true. God is not omnipotent. Denies the deity of Jesus Christ and His virgin birth. Believes death is "soul sleep." Salvation experience must be proven by speaking in tongues and then the person cannot sin.

Theosophy—Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, founder, was a medium. Heavily influenced by Hinduism and Gnosticism, as in belief of evolutionary path of all mankind through reincarnation. Believe a Christ-spirit that indwelt Buddha, Hermes, Zoroaster, Orpheus and Jesus is awaiting its return shortly. Teaches self-salvation through esoteric (secret) knowledge.

Transcendental Meditation—A particular kind of meditation which uses mysticism and breathing/relaxing techniques to achieve altered states of consciousness. Claims to reduce stress and tension, improve health, increase productivity and self-confidence, heighten intelligence and creativity and reduce the need for drugs. Uses mantras, Sanskrit words or repeated syllables used to produce meditative state.

Transvestism—Sexual gratification through cross-dressing, that is, wearing the clothes of the opposite sex. Does not necessarily denote homosexuality.

Unitarianism —Unitarian Universalist Church. Claims there is one God, a solitary entity, rather than the Trinity, and refuses to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Believes in self-atonement and rejects concept of heaven and hell. Refuses to acknowledge the Bible as inspired by God or infallible.

Unification Church—"Moonies." Combination of pseudo-Christian, mystical, psychological, philosophical and charismatic elements. Reverend Moon's writings are considered the final authority. Sees Jesus as imperfect and Moon as greater than Jesus. Uses brainwashing techniques and arranged marriages.

Unity—Unity Church Universal. A gnostic cult and pantheistic metaphysical system which emphasizes mental healing and reincarnation. Sin, disease and death can be overcome by right thinking and living. Sees the Bible as one source among many which contain truth. God is a principle or force, not a Person, within each person. Denies Jesus as Christ and instead claims all men have the Christ spirit within them.

Voodoo—A religion that is derived from African polytheism and ancestor worship and is practiced chiefly in Haiti.

Vows—A solemn promise one is bound to, i.e. "vow that I will never..." or "vow that I will not ..."

Voyeurism—The seeking of sexual stimulation by watching something sexually arousing. ("peeping Tom")

Wart Treatment—Ritualistic in nature, i.e. putting a hair of the afflicted person in a hole made in a tree.

Water Witching or Water Divining or Water Smelling—Locating water using a Divining rod or other occult methods.

White Witchcraft—Occult use of power supposedly for good purposes, such as healing, prosperity, fertility, etc.

Wicca—A religion influenced by pre-Christian beliefs and practices of western Europe that affirms the existence of supernatural power (as magic) and of both male and female deities who inhere in nature, and that emphasizes ritual observance of seasonal and life cycles believed in radical empiricism and pragmatism (truth is based on personal experience).

Yoga—A form of meditation from India which emphasizes self-control over one's body and spirit. Usually done in a "Buddha" position (crossed legs).

Zen Meditation—Stresses self-discipline and use of meditation in order to attain direct intuitive insight.

Sometimes uses "tantra" which is a sexual mystic experience.

Zodiac Signs—Twelve astrological signs based on a belt of constellations. Person's birth date determines his or her sun sign of the Zodiac (the main sign used).

Zoroastrianism—Persian in origin. Has similarities to Christianity in that it teaches monotheism, the coming of a Savior, resurrection of the body, judgment and eternal life. However, they believe that the spirit of evil is as powerful as their god and cannot be defeated. Their god is not a personal one. Worship is ritual only. Salvation by works. Believe good outweighs bad and that is heaven. There is a lack of righteousness in their god. Practice involves superstition and occultism.

Prayers of Confession for Deliverance

Personal Sin

God in Heaven,

I now come to confess to You the sin of _____. Thank You for the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, which washes me clean of this sin. In Jesus' name, I break any curse that is upon me, or my family, because of this sin. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for being a curse for me. In the Name of the Lord Jesus' Christ I pray, Amen.

Ancestral Sin

Lord God in Heaven,

I come to You to confess the sin of _____, done in my ancestry by _____. I put this sin, and any curse from it, under the blood of Jesus Christ. I declare this curse to be powerless over me, and my family, in Jesus' name. Also, I nail the core of my ancestral sins to the cross and break all curses upon me, and my family, because of the sins of my ancestry in Jesus' name. Satan, you and your host no longer have any power over me because of these sins anymore. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for the deliverance You provide by Your work on the cross. I pray in the Name of the Lord Jesus' Christ, Amen.

Sexual Sin/Soul Ties

Lord God Almighty,

At this time, I come to confess the sexual sin of _____ done with _____ (name the person). I nail this sin to the cross and break any curse upon me, and my family, for this sin in Jesus' name. Also, I send back to _____ the part of him/her that I received in this sexual act. I also retrieve from _____ the part of me that he/she has. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for the restoration to being a whole person. In the Name of the Lord Jesus' Christ I pray, Amen.

Renounce Satan

Satan, I renounce you and your host, all your works and ways (List the specific areas in which you have been involved) from my life. I'm finished with your works of darkness. I now transfer myself to the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ and His light and direction for my life.

Affirmation of Faith

Precious Heavenly Father,

I affirm that I believe that Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior. I claim that His shed blood on the cross has washed me clean from sins as well as my guilt and shame. His broken body has delivered me from sins power, and His resurrection has given me new life. Thank You, Lord Jesus, that You love me. In the all-sufficient Name of Jesus Christ I pray, Amen.
